URBANA'S PRIVATE EQUITY COMPANY PROFILES – Oct. 2024

The following provides a brief description of Urbana Corporation's ("Urbana") private equity investments. Where available, a link is provided to each organization's website for further details.

Always invested.

CNSX Markets Inc. (Canadian Securities Exchange)

("CSE"): CNSX has offered issuers a marketplace to access public capital since 2003. As the first new exchange recognized in Ontario since the 1920's, they introduced an alternative to the existing means of accessing public capital. They also provided a competitive option for trading stocks listed on other Canadian exchanges. The aim: reduce the cost of capital for Canadian issuers through new approaches to public company regulation and the delivery of fair and efficient trading systems. CNSX will never stop their innovation-inspired approach to business. They want to continue to change public markets for the better. They are always invested in their customers.

Caldwell Financial Ltd. (“CFL”): The purchase of CFL, the parent company of Caldwell Securities Ltd. (“CSL”) and Caldwell Investment Management Ltd. (“CIM”) was made at an advantageous valuation representing a fraction of the price for similar entities. Urbana’s strategy has been to accumulate positions within the financial services industry and when appropriate, to act as a consolidator. Urbana came into existence through CSL and CIM and both have been extremely helpful to Urbana’s investment performance over the years, from deal flow, trading, strategic market inputs, evaluations and overall management. The ownership position also provides a degree of offset to fees and charges paid to those entities.
